SUBJECT: CONTINUOUS ASSESSMENT TESTS

The Rules and Regulations Governing University Examinations stipulate that a student must sit for the required number of continuous assessment tests (CATs) in a given course to be eligible to sit for examinations. Any student who sits for the end of semester examinations without having sat for the CATs will therefore be required to retake the course at a cost of Kshs. 7,000, as the marks will be considered null and void.
