

International Maasai Mara University Conference 2018

Conference Timing

Conference is planned in the month of May 2018.

Theme and sub themes

- a. Innovation and entrepreneurship in the indigenous African context
- b. Innovation knowledge in African context
- c. Role of indigenous knowledge in attainment of vision 2030 and SDGs
- d. The gap between old African knowledge and the modernized world and the impact of mismatch in generation of African based innovations.

Sub themes

- Language difference, evolution, facilitator or barrier to trade
- Trading intra and inter-tribal and its effect on neighbourliness
- Food preservation in indigenous context vs modern preservation techniques and attendant health issues
- Cooking and thermal preservation in the African context
- Medicines and breakthroughs in the African context
- Conflict resolution among African communities from family, clan, tribal to inter-tribal
- Numeracy and wealth preservation in the African context
- Education and knowledge transfer in the African context
- Conflict in technology between the African context and the modernized state etc.

Nature of the conference

The following activities could be part of the conference

- i. Exhibitions
- ii. Poster presentations
- iii. Oral presentations
- iv. Awards for excellent performers
- v. Book of abstracts
- vi. Book of conference proceedings

Participants

- Mmarau staff
- Members from other universities
- Industry players
- High school and TVETS
- International invitees

Certificates

1. There will be certificates for organizers who actively participate in the organization of the 2018 conference.
2. There will be certificate of presentation for presenters.
3. There will be certificates of participation for those who attend without actively participating. Co-authors who only attend will receive this certificate. Those who don't attend will not receive it.